NARRATIVE:

After spending the first five days of the year in port, DE WERT got underway for the first time in the new millennium on January 6th in the Mayport operational area (OPAREA). January 7th through 19th the ship was in port. On January 20 She got underway for LINK11 OPS, PACFIRES, and Group Sail 2000. For the next week She would perform helicopter operations with Venom 500. She also conducted an emergency sortie and observed a P-3 flight demonstration. Towards the end of Group Sail 2000 DE WERT conducted a quickdraw evolution, LINK11 OPS, more Helo Ops, formation steaming, and returned home to Mayport on January 28th.

February 1st and 2nd DE WERT got underway in the local OPAREA and conducted JO ship handling drills, BECCES, and Man Overboard drills. On February 3rd DE WERT returned to Mayport and continued to upkeep the ship. On February 15th, She was underway again in the area to do BECCES, surface/air exercises, and a CMTQ scenario, then moored Mayport on the 16th.

The next few weeks in port the crew cleaned, trained, and drilled, then got underway March 7th through 9th and conducted DLQs. March 3rd through 14th She was in port. On the 15th She was underway to conduct ship handling drills in the local OPAREA and departed for Savannah, GA for a St. Patrick's Day celebration. March 18th the ship departed Savannah, GA and headed for Halifax, Canada. On March 21st the ship practiced ITT scenarios, and Helo Crash on Deck drills. March 22nd through 25th She enjoyed a port visit in Halifax then on the 27th She arrived in Newport, Rhode Island to hold a school ship. March 31st DE WERT got underway with 120 SWOS students and conducted a Small Boat Attack Drill and a Pacfire with the Mk75 76mm gun and the Mk 15 Close-In-Weapons-System (CIWS). The ship then moored, debarked the students, and transited to Mayport.

April 1st the gunner's mates hosted 9mm/shotgun qualifications. April 2nd DE WERT moored in Mayport. April 11th the ship got underway for Final Evaluation Problems (FEP). The 12th of April She practiced periscope sightings, detect to engage drills with a LEAR jet, HARPOON engagements, and moored Mayport. The rest of the month was in port time for cleaning and maintaining.

May 9th DE WERT was back underway for families and friends and conducted a 50 caliber/CIWS Pacfire. May 11th DE WERT began week one work ups (WOWU) with HSL-43 detachment 10 then moored Mayport. May 12th the ship got underway for JTFEX.

May 13th while underway She conducted flight Ops, leapfrogs with USS JOHN HANCOCK, anchored on the 15th, and on the 16th did RAS with USNS LENTHALL. On the 17th the ship performed a CONREP with SS CAPE JOHNSON. On May 18th a small boat transfer of Chaplain [REDACTED] from USS KLAKRING to USS DE WERT was successfully completed.

May 19th DE WERT was back in Mayport. On May 30th the ship got underway for Group Sail 00-2 and on June 1st conducted a tailstream, Pacfires, and publication exercises with other ships in Group Sail.

June 3rd DE WERT moored NAVSTA Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico to refuel. The next day She got underway in the area for go-fast training, more publication exercises, and Pacfires. June 8th DE WERT moored NAVSTA Roosevelt Roads and departed on the 9th to make way for Mayport. On June 11th the ship began a Safety Stand-down which continued until deployment.

July 12th DE WERT set sail for a counter drug operations deployment. BATTLECAT 20 from HSL 43 deployed with DE WERT to support the mission. On the 13th the ship headed for Guantanamo Bay, Cuba while conducting force protection, humanitarian, and alcohol training along with a 76mm Pacfire. The 14th the ship moored in Guantanamo Bay, CU to turnover with USS DOYLE, refuel, and embark a Coast Guard Law Enforcement Detachment. On the 18th, the crew conducted FLIR and live warning fire training and DE WERT transited the Panama Canal. She moored Ron Vasco Nunez Balboa (VNB), Panama on the 19th.

July 20th the ship was underway in the South Pacific to begin patrols. The first boarding was the fishing vessel Pikero on the 21st. July 26th the ship crossed the Equator and converted 111 Pollywogs to Shellbacks. July 27th the ship refueled in Manta, Ecuador and transited to Salinas for a port visit on the 28th and 29th where She also embarked six midshipmen. July 29th the basketball and softball teams enjoyed competing in friendly games with the local athletes.

On August 3rd, DE WERT boarded fishing vessel Peter. On August 7th the ship refueled in Manta, Ecuador. On August 17th the ship refueled in Talara, Peru and began a port visit in Paita which lasted until the 18th. August 25th and 26th were spent in VNB, Panama for a port visit.

September 1st the ship transited to Golfito, Costa Rica for a fuel stop then on September 2nd performed an all sensor search for fishing vessel Gran Tauro. On September 3rd DE WERT boarded Gran Tauro and on September 5th refueled in Golfito, Costa Rica. On September 8th the ship conducted 76mm/CIWS Pacfires. On September 12th DE WERT boarded fishing vessel Zita Ivonne. On September 15th DE WERT refueled in Manta, Ecuador and continued patrolling. On September 19th the ship escorted fishing vessel Caucano toward the Colombian coast and on the 20th rendezvoused with the Colombian Navy's Admirante Padilla for handoff of Caucano.

On September 21st through 24th DE WERT enjoyed a port visit in VNB Panama and on the 25th and 26th of September participated in Operation DAGGER. On September 27th DE WERT seized a go fast with six passengers and contraband. The ship had to medically evacuate one of the suspects to a hospital in Buenaventura, CO for a fractured bone.

The next day on September 28th, DE WERT caught its second go-fast. She would transfer the contraband to the Colombian Navy on the 29th of September.

On October 3rd, DE WERT refueled in VNB Panama and continued to patrol. October 8th She transited toward the Panama Canal where She refueled again in VNB and transited north on the 9th of October. October 11 and 12 DE WERT had a port visit in Aruba and then October 16th and 17th had a port visit in Key West, FL where She also picked up Tigers to ride back to Mayport. DE WERT arrived in Mayport October 20th and remained for IMAV until October 31st.

November 1st through the 4th the ship transited to Panama for a southern canal transit on the 5th. November 6th through 9th the ship enjoyed a port visit in VNB, Panama. After patrolling the 10th through the 16th, DE WERT made her way back towards Panama on the 17th. November 19th through 23rd the crew celebrated Thanksgiving in Panama by roasting turkeys and enjoying the MS's cooking.

November 24th through 28th She was on patrol and boarded Capt Donald on the 28th. She then transited to Golfito, Costa Rica for a port visit from November 30th until December 2nd.

December 10th DE WERT refueled in VNB, Panama and transited the Panama Canal north on December 11th. December 14th and 15th the crew had an excellent port visit in Aruba and on December 17th the ship refueled and turned over with USS O'BANNON at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

December 18th She headed for Mayport, FL. December 20th, BATTLECAT 20 departed. DE WERT arrived at homeport December 21st to conclude a very successful Counter Drug Deployment. The remainder of the year was dedicated to holiday leave and stand-down.
